After that click on "Rosetta Stone Library Solutions".

After this you will see this page:

A screenshot of the Rosetta Stone login page. The page is dark grey with the Rosetta Stone logo in the top left. The main content area is white and contains the following text:

First time user?
1.) Enter your e-mail address.
2.) Choose a password (must be at least 6 letters plus at least one number)

Below the text are three input fields:

- A text input field labeled "Username".
- A text input field labeled "Password".
- A dropdown menu labeled "Choose Language to Learn" with a blue arrow icon on the right.

At the bottom center is a blue button labeled "SIGN IN".

There enter your personal email and Password (any password you want to use). Now from the drop down enter the language you want to learn.

Now click on “Launch Rosetta Stone® Foundations”. Enjoy your learning now.
